Our Founder

Loknayak Bapuji Aney

Dr. Madhav Shrihari Aney (29 August 1880 – 26 January 1968) popularly referred to as Loknayak Bapuji Aney or Bapuji Aney, was an ardent educationist, freedom fighter, statesman, a modern Sanskrit poet and a politician. He was also conferred with the title of "Loknayak Bapuji", which means "The People's Leader and Respected Father". He was one of the founder of the Congress Nationalist Party. He was first among the eminent disciples of Lokmanya Tilak. Accepting the leadership of Mahatma Gandhi on the death of Bal Gangadhar Tilak. Aney persuaded his colleagues to see the writing on the wall. At the same time he was not blind in his loyalty. He disapproved Congress throwing itself in Khilafat Movement and warned against excessive wooing of Muslims at the cost of national interests. He regarded unity at any price as elusive and dangerous. Since the best safeguard for the minority was the goodwill of the majority. He never permitted his critical faculties to be blurred by emotion. Mahatma Gandhi admiring his calm logic, confided in him and often sought his counsel. He was chosen to arbitrate the disputes between Subhash Chandra Bose and Jatindra Mohan Sengupta. He was never a breaker or a destroyer but was always a cementing factor believing in synthesis and not in segregation. In the year 1918- Aney Joined Home Rule League and also founded Lokmat paper in Yavatmal, which was later acquired by Jawaharlal Darda in 1952.

1921- He was elected President Vidarbha Pradesh Congress Committee, and joined the Civil Disobedience Movement. The British government cancelled his Sanad to practice law, which ended his legal practice. During the time he practiced, as he was frequently imprisoned, the lawyers from Yavatmal Bar to which he belonged would give him their briefs to argue, to enable him to earn his fees. So loved was he that his home in Yavatmal, which now houses The Loknayak Bapuji Aney Mahila Mahavidyalaya, a womens' college, was built from the contributions of the members of the Yavatmal bar.

On 1.1.1922- became President of the Varhad unit of Swatantra Party of Pandit Motilal Nehru & Chitranjan Das. In 1923, Aney was elected to the Central Provinces Legislative Assembly and in 1923 he established the Vidarbha Shitya Sangh. In 1924, Aney joined the Congress as Member, Congress Committee.

In 1928 he was elected President Maharashtra Sahitya Sangh at its Gwalior convention. He established New English High School, Yeotmal (now Loknayak Bapuji Aney Vidyalaya, Yeotmal) in 1928. During 1928-29 Aney was Secretary of the Nehru Committee. Nehru Committee Report of 10 August 1928 was a memorandum outlining a proposed new dominion status for the constitution for India. It was prepared by a committee of the All Parties Conference chaired by Motilal Nehru with his son Jawaharlal Nehru acting as secretary. There were nine other members in this committee. The final report was signed by Motilal Nehru, Ali Imam, Tej Bahadur Sapru, Madhav Shrihari Aney, Mangal Singh, Shuaib Qureshi, Subhas Chandra Bose, and G. R. Pradhan.

Aney resigned from the Legislative Assembly, and on 10.0.1930, took part in the Jungle Satyagraha at a forest outside Pusad, where he was arrested with his associates. He was convicted for theft of forest product, and imprisoned for 6 months. After this incident, he was known as 'Loknayak'. From 1930 to 1942 he took part in 'Bharat Chodo' (Quit India Movement). He was made a Member, Congress working Committee in 1931.

In 1933 he became President of the Indian National Congress. In 1938, Aney was appointed Vice Chancellor, Tilak Maharashtra Vidyapeeth. In 1941 he was appointed as Member on the Viceroy's Council under Lord Linlithgow, and was incharge of Overseas Indians & Commonwealth relations Portfolio. Aney, Sir Homi Mody and N.R.Sarkar, Dr.Babasaheb Ambedkar and others resigned from the Viceroy's Counsel in support of Mahatma's fast unto death in 1942. From 1943 to 1947 Aney was India's High Commissioner to Sri Lanka. In 1948, when the Constituent Assembly was convened to frame India's Constitution, the Princely States of Central India nominated Loknayak Aney as their representative on the Constituent Assembly.

In 1948, following Shri Jairamdas Daulatram who was governor from 15.8.1947 to 11.1.1948, Loknayak Aney became the Governor of Bihar. He was Governor from 12.1.1948 to 14.6.1952. He was so loved and respected, that one of the most important roads in Patna on which is The official residence of Bihar's Chief Minister is on the road named after Loknayak Aney. (The address is wrongly referred to as 1 Anne Marg instead of 1 Aney Marg).

In 1952, while he was Governor, Loknayak Aney fell seriously ill from spinal Tuberculosis. He was completely bed-ridden and had to lie in a plaster cast for many months. He was moved from Patna to his brother-in-law's home Dr.Krishnaji Atmaram Nulkar's home in Sadashiv Peth, Pune. where Dr. Nulkar attended to Loknayak Aney's recovery which took over 4 years. Even in this bedridden condition, he performed the Vajapaya Yagna at Poona. During the period of his illness, Fazal Ali Commission was appointed for the First Reorganisation of States.

Although bed-ridden, in 1954 Aney submitted a Memorandum to the Commission called 'Memorandum for Statehood for Vidarbha' which set out in great detail the case for statehood for Vidarbha, pointing out to its historical, geographic, socio-political and economic claim for the status of a State in the Indian Union. However, when formation of states were announced on 1.11.1956, Vidarbha was not created. This led to a popular uprising for Vidarbha state, which was headed by Loknayak Aney and Brijlal Biyani, who formed the Nag Vidarbha Andolan Samiti. After recovering from his prolonged illness, Loknayak Aney won the 1959 bye-election to Nagpur Parliamentary seat to the 2nd Lok Sabha on a Congress ticket. However, in the 1962 general election, he refused to contest on the Congress ticket and fought as a Nag Vidarbha Andolan Samiti candidate and won Nagpur Parliamentary seat with 1,31,740 votes defeating Shri Rikhabchand Sharma (Congress)with 84,870 votes. Pandit Nehru who had visited Nagpur to campaign for the Congress candidate Shri Sharma refused to speak against Loknayak Aney at the public meeting organised for the candidate. From 1959 to 1966 Loknayak Aney sat as Member of the 3rd Loksabha.

On 26 January 1968, the day he died, he was honored with Padma Vibhushan. In 1973, he was posthumously honored with the Sahitya Akademi Award for Sanskrit for his Shritilakayashornava (1971), a Sanskrit biography of Bal Gangadhar Tilak. He died on 26 January 1968 evening with a severe heart attack.

Message from President

Dear Students,

I, on behalf of Education Society, Yavatmal, cordially welcome all the students seeking admission to our college, Loknayak Bapuji Aney Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Yavatmal. In the golden jubilee year of our college, I am ecstatic to see the luscious tree full of fruits in the form of Arts and Commerce (English Medium) faculty as well. I congratulate all the teaching staff for scaling the heights of success of the students in academics, arts and sports spheres to the seventh sky; ultimately increasing the reputation of the college. This is now history. But, I firmly believe that all the professors will keep the present in mind and encourage the students to establish new records of immense accomplishments.

Merely, to acquire a degree or post graduate degree taking higher education cannot be the lone purpose of education. I piously pray to Almighty that our students should conquer all the fields completely using their effective personality in this world of cut throat competition resulting in transforming our nation educated and resolved. The sudden appearance of COVID-19 in Wuhan, China and its quick worldwide transmission has all of us in the grips of a deadly pandemic. Front-line healthcare workers and public health experts around the globe battle to save lives and prevent further cases. Some pharmacological studies and even vaccine trials are underway, but the COVID-19 pandemic is not yet over. CORONA virus has affected the world in ways that none of us could have fathomed. Everything that we have traditionally taken for granted—community, social gathering, sports, entertainment has been completely suspended.

This is a challenging time during which few of us may have lost loved ones and colleagues. Like all social elements all over the world, we also support to build a stronger community. We should not fall victim to short term pressures, but rather fight to this situation by following the guidelines from WHO and local authorities of each country. We hope that you all are safe, healthy, and come out on the other side of this pandemic even stronger than ever before.

Best wishes to you, your families, all the teaching and non teaching staff during this difficult time!

Mr. Diwakar B. Pande

The President

Education Society, Yavatmal - 445001.

Message from Principal

DR.DURGESH BHASKAR KUNTE

Dear Brothers/Sisters,

This is just a small attempt to communicate with all of you. In this world of cut throat competition, all the parents are facing the very serious problem of their wards' progress along with the safety in the society. The only difference is when this problem comes to their doorstep as an ugly giant; they feel the seriousness of it.. In this age of information and communication technology, the unreasonable (improper) increased use of mobile phone is responsible for destroying the social health. In this critical condition, our responsibility has also increased as parents.

During the tender age, when the captivating and cheating moments can come across every step, we don't even try to know about her progress meeting teachers of her college where she is taking her education once in a year at least. The emotional transformations coming along with the age are very natural. We have also gone through this age. But at that time, some acquaintance would see and tell this at home was a great fear and because of this fear, the proportion of falling victim to that attraction and bet was very less. But today, so is not the case. That is why if any unpleasant incident take place, only then the family members come to know about the reality. Obviously, the reason is our extra and unreasonable belief in our wards. We, the college employees, experience the pains of the parents who are desperate because of the sudden shock.

Brother/Sisters, I humbly want to make a modest request that just spare fifteen minutes once in a fortnight and take the review of your ward's progress from her patron teacher. If it's not possible to meet personally, ask about her movements and whereabouts during the college hours. This will give you the idea about her progress. Register your presence compulsorily in the parents meet. Take care of writing your own mobile number on the admission form of your ward. Let us all try to become alert parents. We are definitely trying. But if we get your valuable cooperation, we can make our wards sophisticated and well resolved in a truer sense!

Expecting your cooperation!

Big thanks!

Thanks & Regards,

DR.DURGESH BHASKAR KUNTE
