2.5 - Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 - Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode. Write description within 200 words.

Head of the institute formed Exam Committee to conduct all types of exam and related work. The committee assured by monitoring the assessment methodology adopted by various teaching department. The college has a set procedure for internal examination. A student is required to take two internal exams per year, per the academic calendar. At the start of the semester, the academic calendar is used to determine the internal examination timetable. The academic calendar requires teachers to complete unit tests, which may take the form of assignments, blackboard presentations, PowerPoint presentations, subject-specific quizzes, or other methods determined, by the subject teacher. The test results are shown in the classrooms, and each student is free to inquire about their performance.

After each internal assessment, committee collected data from concerning departments and published it on the college notice board as well as students were informed about such notice.

Marks of assignments, field work, projects, seminars, group discussion etc. are some modes in which students are assessed internally.

Transparency in Internal Assessment: The exam committee, with the teaching department make sure that the marks of all unit test, surprise test, common test, GD, Seminars must be informed to each of the student and if they have any concern about it, they could talk with the concerning teacher or mentor. After that, students issue is resolved.

The Frequency and mode of conducting such assessments is consistent. In this way the whole process and mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and open.

2.5.2 - Mechanism to deal with internal examination related grievances is transparent, time- bound and efficient

The head of the institute formed a dedicated committee for exam related work. Exam Committee has a well planned Mechanism to deal with exam related grievances. The college has a well-organized procedure for handling complaints about examination-related issues. In order to address an examination related complaint, the student may speak with the teachers, examination committee, and principal.

Application of the Student: The student need to submit his/her grievance (if any) to the exam committee.

Review: Exam Committee review the complaint. If the complaint is valid, it cross check the data. If there is any discrepancy in the data, the complaint is forwarded to the concerning teachers/ departments.

Departmental Review: The concerning head of the department undertake the issue and resolve the complaint, and forwards its report to the exam committee.

Resolution: Exam committee within the context of report received by concerning departments resolves the issue. If necessary, it forward the complaint with a covering letter to the affiliating university.

University exam-related complaints can be filed online. The university will provide photocopies of the answer sheets upon request from the students. Students who were dissatisfied with their exam results might request a revaluation or reassessment from the university. The college sends a photocopy of the internal mark sheet together with an application to the university to fix the error for students whose marks are not recorded or improperly entered as a result of an oversight in the mark list.

5.3.2 - Institution facilitates students' representation and engagement in various administrative, co-curricular and extracurricular activities (student council/ students representation on various bodies as per established processes and norms )

The institute is very keen about the students participation in administration and extracurricular/co-curricular activities. Students as a stakeholders are encouraged and promoted to be the part of various committees which run the local administration of the college. All students should have an equal opportunity to participate in the management of the college's operations, according to the college. In order to do this, the college works to provide them with chances to take part in numerous academic and executive organisations. The committees and organisations where participation by students in various administrative, co-curricular, and extracurricular activities is evident include the ones listed below:

*Student Council is formed by selecting class representatives. Such Council have the responsibility to ensure students rights and responsibilities.

*Various committees such as socio-cultural committee, women's grievance redressal committee etc. formed by the head of the institute have at least one student representative. Generally, Co-curricular activities are organised by the students in guidance with mentors. Study Tour, Seminars, Group discussions, Presentations and such are the in class activities organised by the students successfully. Extracurricular activities including annual day function, social responsibility events, cleanliness drive, nutrition week, plastic free campus, expert talks, vaccination drive, food festival, rallies and celebration of national days are organised by the students.

Thus, the institute has demonstrated that it facilitates its students to represent in administrative, co-curricular and extracurricular activities.

7.1.8 - Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e., tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic and other diversities (within 200 words).

The institute is located at the center of the Yavatmal city which gives an opportunity to it to set an example as an institution contributing in developing an inclusive environment for not only to its stakeholders but to the community as well. There is linguistics, cultural and communal diversity of students in the college. Hence, the programs and activities conducted by the college integrate the value of coexistence, tolerance and social harmony. College has celebrated national festive days to highlight the significance of national integration. Various Religious festivals have been celebrated by everyone without religious differences. Students are scattered among linguistic communities which include Marathi, Hindi, Urdu, Banjara and some few local dialects. They gather and share their linguistic peculiarities in the various programs abba events. Students are from different strata and socioeconomic milieu but they share and care as well as respect each others individuality. The students and neighboring community is multicultural. Students take participation in cultural events which provides them and opportunity to learn, understand, and inculcate various cultural beliefs. Thus, the Institute take initiatives in providing and inclusive environment which ensures that there is tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic diversities.

7.3.2 - Plan of action for the next academic year

As we prepare for the next academic year, there are several important initiatives that our college will be undertaking to enhance the learning experience for our students. We are excited to announce that we will be implementing the Choice Based Credit System (CBCS), which will provide greater flexibility for students to choose the courses they want to study based on their interests and career aspirations. In addition, we are planning to focus on following points:

1. To implement CBCS.
2. Interdisciplinary and multi disciplinary collaboration activities by signing Mou.
3. To organize National/ International Conference. (At least one).
4. Student and faculty exchange and active participation in college cluster.
5. Subscription of e journals for the library.
6. To organise more number of programs relating to Gender sensitization and environmental consciousness and sustainability, Universal values and ethics etc.
7. Motivate students to undertake educational tours, field project, field visit in order to increase experiential learning.
