3. Sports Facility

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION:

A highly effective physical education program aims to develop physical literacy through the acquisition of skills, knowledge, physical fitness, and confidence. Physical education curricula promote healthy development of children, encourage interest in physical activity and sport, improve learning of health and physical education concepts, and accommodate for differences in student populations to ensure that every student receives health benefits. These core principles are implemented through sport participation, sports skill development, knowledge of physical fitness and health, as well as mental health and social adaptation.

Physical education is an important part of the College curriculum that aims to develop students physically, mentally, socially, emotionally, and spiritually through selected physical activities. It provides numerous benefits, including promoting good health, preventing disease, building muscle strength and fitness, improving academic performance, developing cooperation and social skills, and building self-esteem. Physical fitness encompasses both general health and well-being as well as specific skills related to sports or occupations, and are achieved through proper nutrition, exercise, hygiene, and rest.

"In the dust of defeat as well as the laurels of victory there is a glory to be found if one has done his best."

Just like a diet of healthy nutrients is needed for nourishing the body, playing sports holds a great significance in enhancing our lives, especially for growing children. As a student, one has to face many challenges, and playing sports helps them cope with the exam pressure and prepare them for further challenges by providing them with physical and mental strength. Playing sports builds your personality and teaches you to live life in a better way. Getting involved in such activities teaches good values, ethics, and skills in your life. The person starts to have a positive outlook towards life and can easily deal with obstacles in their life. Not only this, but it also reduces the stress level in the person as such people start taking challenges with positivity. Their efficiency increases, so they can easily take up challenges confidently.

People can learn lots of important skills through their sports. Every sport teaches us the skills of handling difficult situations, quick- decisions making and problem-solving. By playing sports, one can learn the art of living and managing things and taking leads.

C. SPORTS ACHIEVEMENT:

Achievement motivation is the effort an athlete makes to succeed within their chosen field. It's their attempts at overcoming obstacles or mastering a particular task. There are so many descriptions of this theory that an athlete, exerciser, sports psychologist, or coach could easily come up with.

"A trophy carries dust; memories last forever."

Yoga:

Yoga is an ancient Indian philosophy that dates back thousands of years. It was designed as a path to spiritual enlightenment, but in modern times, the physical aspects of yoga have found huge popularity as a gentle form of exercise and stress management. There are many different varieties of yoga, but each one essentially relies on structured poses (asanas) practiced with breath awareness.

The classical techniques of yoga date back more than 5000 years. The practice of yoga encourages effort, intelligence, accuracy, thoroughness, commitment and dedication. The word yoga originates from the Sanskrit language and means 'to join or yoke together'. It brings your body and mind together, and is built on three main elements – exercise, breathing and meditation.

“Yoga is the journey of the self, through the self, to the self.”
