Policy Document on E-Governance

Preamble

In the context of the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) guidelines, e-governance is an essential component to enhance transparency, efficiency, and accountability in the administration of educational institutions. LoknayaK Bapuji Aney Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Yavatmal aims to integrate technology into its governance processes to ensure that services are effectively delivered to students, staff, and stakeholders in a timely and efficient manner.

Vision

To implement a robust and transparent e-governance system that enhances the overall efficiency of the college's administrative, academic, and financial operations, in alignment with the institution's mission and vision.

Objectives

- To digitize administrative processes for better transparency, efficiency, and accessibility.
- To provide timely information to stakeholders through the integration of various e-platforms.
- To minimize paper usage and create an eco-friendly campus.
- Online login for Library.

Scope

The e-governance policy covers the following key areas:

1. Administration
2. Finance and Accounts
3. Student Admissions and Support
4. Examination
5. Library Services

- To automate and digitize administrative tasks for better efficiency: Establish a centralized digital platform for administrative functions such as notices, library records.
 - Use of ERP (Enterprise Resource Planning) systems for data management and reporting.
 - Online platforms for scheduling and managing college events, meetings, and conferences.
- To digitize financial operations and improve transparency: Online fee collection, salary disbursement, and financial record-keeping through a secure online portal.
- To streamline student services from admission to graduation: Online admission for students, Digitized management of student records. Online student feedback system.
- To enhance the efficiency and accuracy of the examination process: Online examination form filling and fee payment, mark sheets, and certificates, Results declaration through the University website and student portals.
- To ensure seamless access to learning resources: Digital cataloging of books and resources. Online access to e-books, journals, and databases, Digital issue and return of books through an automated system. Use of a Library Management System (LMS) for efficient resource management.

The implementation of this e-governance policy at LoknayaK Bapuji Aney Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Yavatmal is a step towards enhancing operational efficiency, transparency, and accountability. By leveraging digital tools and platforms, the college aims to meet and exceed the quality benchmarks.
